Save Picks – IMPORTANT: After making a prediction of the winner in each featured professional football game for that week and the halftime and final score of the designated last game of the week – contestants must click the 'Save Picks' button to save and record their predictions or any updates/changes to their predictions. Failure to click the 'Save Picks' will void any selections or updates for that week by the contestant. All predictions must be successfully saved and received prior to the start of each scheduled game. Sponsor is not responsible for any difficulties in selecting, submitting or saving any prediction prior to the start of each week's games for any reason including technical issues, programming errors, internet traffic, connection issues or human error including forgetting to click the 'Save' button by the entrant. Any predictions not received on the contest site or saved in the entry database for any reason shall be void, and will not be eligible for that week's contest attempt or to claim the grand prize regardless of the accuracy of any claimed or actual predictions.

Cumulative Points Prediction – Tie Breaker for weekly or overall 1st place prize award: In addition to the halftime and final score prediction as listed above, each participant is also required to submit their prediction of the Total Cumulative Points to be scored in the last game scheduled to be played each week. The Cumulative Points Prediction shall be used for a tie-breaker only to determine the weekly first, second or third place finisher or overall season first, second or third place finishers, in the event of a tie for the most points in any week or for the entire season (see tie-breaking procedures below). Any contestant who failed to complete and save their Total Cumulative Points 'tie-breaker' prediction will be assigned a cumulative point total of 0 points for that game, regardless of whether they have submitted a halftime and final score prediction.

Scoring – 1 Point per Game: Each participant who has successfully completed, saved and submitted their online predictions each week will receive 1-point for each game in which they have correctly predicted the winning team. Any incorrect predictions or any prediction not received will receive 0 points.

Tie Breaking Procedures: In the event of a tie among the weekly First Place Finisher in any week of the contest, the tie-breakers shall be as follows:

- Contestant who has predicted the actual or closest to the actual Cumulative Points total in the last game scheduled to be played for that corresponding week as listed above, regardless if their actual prediction is higher or lower than the actual point total.

- If there is a tie for the season long point leaders, then the tie breaker shall be applied to the season long cumulative point differential. The total sum of each player's weekly points differential as compared to the actual Cumulative Points will be used to determine the Season Long finishers. The player with the lowest season long point differential, will be determined as the winner.
- In the event of a remaining tie among any eligible contestants, the tie-breaker shall then be a random drawing among the tied contestants conducted by the Contest Administrator.

Determination of Prize Winners & Notification

Grand Prize – Perfect Prediction for every winner of the week, and halftime and final score of the last game of the week (Maximum of one grand prize award available each week, up to a maximum of 3 total grand prize awards during entire contest period): Following each week's regular season professional football games, sponsor shall determine if any contestant has correctly predicted the winner of each game played that week, AND correctly predicted the exact halftime and final score for both teams of the last game scheduled to be played as outlined above.

The grand prize will only be awarded if an eligible contestant has correctly predicted the winner of every game, and correctly predicted the exact halftime and final score for both teams of the last designated game being played for that week ("perfect picks").

- If there are no entrants within the week who have correctly predicted the winner of every game, and the exact halftime and final score for both teams of the last scheduled game – then the grand prize will not be awarded for that week.
- There is a maximum of one (1) grand prize award available each week. In the event more than one contestant has submitted perfect picks within the same weekly period, then the contestant who first submitted their picks for the week, based upon the contest time clock, shall be declared the winner. In the event of a remaining tie, the winner will be selected at random from among all tied contestants.
- There is a maximum of three (3) total grand prize awards available during the entire contest period. Following the third time the grand prize is awarded, then grand prize shall no longer be available in the contest and cannot be claimed by any further contestants, regardless of whether any additional contestants submit perfect picks for any subsequent weekly period.

Halftime and Final Score Prediction: The following requirements apply for the submitted halftime and final score prediction:

- In order to be an accurate halftime and final score prediction, the halftime and final score prediction submitted by the contestant must be completely accurate and match the exact halftime and final score with the correct team
 - For example, if the actual final score of the designated game is Miami – 27, Dallas – 10, then a submitted final score prediction of Dallas – 27, Miami – 10 or a prediction of 27 – 10 without specifying the associated teams will not constitute a winning final score entry.

NOTE – Game Rescheduling, Postponement or Cancellation: In the event any game is cancelled within a given week for any reason, including the last game of the week that is designated for the halftime and final score prediction, then there shall NOT be an opportunity for a Perfect Pick grand prize award for that associated week, regardless of the number of remaining games predicted correctly for the week. Any game cancellation shall result in the removal of the availability of the grand prize award for that week.

- In the event any game is postponed and rescheduled, the rescheduled game date shall be considered as part of the original week and the outcome of the game must be predicted correctly to be considered a correct prediction to be eligible for the Perfect Pick grand prize for that week, regardless of when the game actually occurs or is played, provided it is played prior to the end of the season.
- If any postponed or rescheduled game is later cancelled or not played prior to the end of the regular season by 1/3/21, then there shall be an opportunity for a Perfect Pick grand prize result for that associated week.

Weekly First, Second and Third Place Finisher: The weekly First, Second and Third Place Finisher shall be determined as the contestant who has correctly predicted the first, second and third most winning teams for that corresponding week from among all participating players. The contestants who have scored the first, second and third most points among all participants, by correctly predicting the first, second and third most winning teams that week will be designated as the weekly First, Second and Third Place Finisher. In the event of a tie among contestants, then Sponsor shall use the Cumulative Points tie-breaking procedures outlined above to determine the weekly Finishers.

Decisions of the Administrator in the determination of weekly first, second and third place prize winners, overall season long first, second and third place winners, and grand prize winner (if any), and all matters relating to this Contest are final and binding. Each Weekly Prize winner, Season Long prize winner and any Grand Prize winner (if any) will be notified by phone, and/or email – or as otherwise determined by Sponsor. If the Administrator is unsuccessful in its attempt to reach and speak directly with a winner by phone after 3 attempts over 72-hours from the initial attempt to the phone number listed on that contestant's entry, then that contestant may be disqualified.

During each notification phone call, each potential prize winner must confirm their eligibility, and their acceptance of the corresponding prize award. If any potential winner does not meet the eligibility requirements, or is unable or unwilling to accept the prize, s/he will be disqualified, and prize shall not be re-awarded. Any disqualified contestant will not receive any alternate prize substitution or compensation.
